

Saving Princes Parade.

In opposition on Folkestone & Hythe District Council Tim led more attempts to cancel Princes Parade development in Council than any other Councillor. In power Tim has been a key part of the team that ended development plans and removed the hoarding.

Delivering Safer Roads.

After years of campaigning for a 20mph zone in Sandgate, Kent County Council finally listened to Tim and local residents and agreed to a 20mph zone.

Plans were backed by residents by 20-1. Detailed scheme now being drawn up: should be in place by the summer.

David Cowell, East Hythe

"Tim Prater has excelled at Parish, District and County level bringing an honesty and integrity sadly missing in others."

"He works hard for the area, keeps groups and residents in touch with new opportunities. He is always around in our community and rarely gives up."

"As an example, the fight for a 20mph zone in Sandgate has been going on for decades. Tim is finally making it happen."

Peter Gane, Cheriton

"I've been a Councillor in Cheriton for over 30 years, and Mayor of Folkestone for 5 years."

"I know an effective Councillor when I see one. Tim is."

"We've campaigned on issues that matter here like the White Lion in Cheriton, safer crossings near Tesco and saving Princes Parade."

"Having Tim on the County Council would help us get a better deal for Cheriton."

Tracy Stephens, Sandgate

"There are not many Councillors who spend as many hours a week working for their area as Tim does."

"No matter your politics, our area needs someone who will work hard for us, speak up for our area, and just get things done."

"Tim has proved he is that person."

Sandy McConnell, Saltwood

"We're very fortunate in this community to have an individual like Tim Prater."

"He is committed, dedicated and passionate about the area, towns and parishes that encompass where we live."

"Vote for Tim in May and put him in Kent County Council to do the right thing."

Richard Showler, Sandgate

"No other Council leader cleans up after dogs or scrubs graffiti off the walls."

"Best person ever on the Council and I've lived here 70 years."

"His bright shirts and personality combined with his hard work and devotion to Sandgate have resulted in a better and brighter place to live."

Why are LOCAL PEOPLE like US voting for Tim Prater?

Vannessa Reay, Sandgate

"I'll be voting for Tim and appreciate all he does round here."

"His dedication and hard work really make a difference for people in our area."

Sal Kenward, Sandgate & Saltwood

"Tim gets things done!"

"Whenever there is an issue you know you only have to contact him and there is action that day putting wheels in motion."

"Every Council needs a Tim Prater."

"As Chair of the Sandgate Society, we've never worked so closely with Sandgate Parish for the good of Sandgate."

"That is down in large part to the drive, personality and commitment shown by Tim."

Alison Pemberton, West Folkestone

"It's amazing the difference Tim has made since becoming our District Councillor."

"He's worked hard, kept people in touch, stood up for this area and got things done."

"He's just the sort of voice we need standing up for us at County Hall too."

Better Access for All.

Tim championed and got installed drop kerbs through Golden Valley. Delivered Sandgate seafront to Castle Road wheelchair & buggy access. Fought for, and won, a new Zebra crossing by Folkestone West train station.

Now working with others on a new scheme for more accessible walking routes through the area and a new traffic island on Military Road.
